

Draft agenda for Lempster Conservation Commission October 13th meeting held at Lempster Town Office at 4:30 pm

Members present:

Guests present:

September meeting notes:

Treasurer:

New Business:

- N chair person
- Set agenda for next meeting

Old Business:

- Rachel sign for the trailhead at Lady Slipper Trail
- "Intent to cut" paperwork and other paperwork
- Walking the boundary on Earl's Lane property and place the private property signs along border's to keep people off the surrounding private property.
- John Nowak report on grants
- Lynda Perry on 3 containers for flyers for kiosks
- Scott on adopted highway signs
- Lake Host information for this year
- Trail signs made so GPS locations can be marked along the trails
- Draft letter concerning town property.
- Carbon Credit Initiatives.
- Don Clifford, Forester, is willing to come and speak with the LCC
- A motion was made, seconded and passed for next year's budget to remain at $5100.00
- Discussion of creating a CIP next year for the project "saving the orchard" after we gather more information on the cost of that project.
- The chairman assigned overseers or obligations to members of the committee so as not to overwhelm members with all the different aspects. Ivan finance along with John grant information and contact, Phil liaison to select board and town departments, Rachel communications, Scott signs and liaison to highway department, Sue trail information like use, maps, and maintenance needed, Lynda wildlife steward.
- A motion was made, seconded and passed to ask the select board if River Road can be made into or considered a conservation trail.
- Lynda Perry a member of the conservation committee.

Agenda subject to change

