

Miner Memorial Library Trustee Meeting
February 27, 2023

Meeting opened at 6:20PM. Attending Janice Brehio, Becky Farrand, Georgie Hill and Tina Fava, Librarian.

Minutes of last meeting were read and accepted. Approved first by Becky, second by Georgie.

No old business or correspondence to review.

Treasurer's report was read and accepted first by Becky, second by Georgie.

Librarian's report included discussion on the need for a new Sunday librarian. Applications are currently being accepted for the position. Library will need to be closed on Sundays temporarily until the position is filled.

Sunday hours of operation were reviewed with the idea that hours may be changed to an earlier time on Sunday, so as to be more convenient for townspeople.

The Friends have asked about the library creating a parade float for Old Home Day. They are also planning a Tea Party and Rabies' Clinic.

Librarian's report accepted first by Becky, second by Georgie.

New business: A new trustee is still needed. Next trustee meeting date adjusted to 3/27/23 at 6:00.

Meeting adjourned.
